DISTRICT OF NEVADA

IKE ELIAS,
Plaintiff,

ORDER

(Docket No. 32)

10 Pending before the Court is Plaintiff's motion for an order to show cause. Docket No. 32.
11 On August 8, 2022, the parties participated in an Early Neutral Evaluation conference and reached
12 a settlement agreement. Docket No. 30. In light of the settlement agreement, the Court ordered
13 the parties to file a stipulation of dismissal by September 12, 2022. Id. No stipulation has been 14 filed to date. See Docket. Plaintiff alleges that he has attempted to contact Defendants' counsel
15 multiple times but has been unsuccessful. Docket No. 32 at 2.

16 Accordingly, Plaintiff's motion for an order to show cause is GRANTED. Docket No 32.
17 Attorney William Palmer is hereby ORDERED to show cause in writing, no later than October
18 14, 2022, why he should not be sanctioned in a court fine of up to $5000 for violating the Court's 19 order.¹ See Fed. R. Civ. P. 16(f). The filing of a stipulation of dismissal by that date will 20 automatically suffice to discharge this order to show cause.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: September 30, 2022

Nancy J. Koppe
United States Magistrate Judge

25 ¹ This is not the first time Defendants' counsel has failed to comply with a court-ordered 26 deadline in this case. See Docket No. 20 (order to show cause for why Defendants and Defendants'
27 counsel should not be sanctioned for missing a filing deadline). Despite the imposition of sanctions
28 for missing that prior deadline, Docket No. 25, Mr. Palmer has again failed to comply with this Court's order. Mr. Palmer is cautioned that any subsequent failures to comply with this Court's orders may result in severe sanctions.
